

REFORMERS ALL REJOICING

ANTICIPATIONS OF A BRILLIANT VICTORY IN NOVEMBER.

Another of the great gatherings in and around the Cooper Union, The enthusiasm with which the speakers have hailed the evidence of the New Democratic Convention.

The Friday night reform meetings have invariably filled the great hall of the Cooper Union to the utmost limit, so that no one is larger than another; but, in view, no doubt, of the Democratic victory in the West, the enthusiasm last night was not greater.

Every inch of space was filled, and the applause was incessant. The platform seats were occupied by distinguished men, not a few of whom belonged to the Republican party in the days of its purity.

The sixtieth Regiment Band filled up the intervals between the speakers with the "Red, White, and Blue," and other patriotic airs.

In the absence of Mr. Wheeler, H. Peckham, Mr. August Belmont presided. He said that the battle of the canvass had been won. [Cheers.] It had been fought in Indiana, Ohio, and Virginia.

Mr. Belmont introduced the Hon. Robert M. McLane of Maryland.

Mr. McLane said that, encouraged by the Western elections, the Democrats of all the country should start with the confidence that the party success in November. Never in the history of the nation had the issue been so important as now.

Not a few could remember when the Democracy of the land was the symbol of its highest honor, and the country was ruled by wise and patriotic men.

After a profound peace of eleven years, the nation was more worse off than at the close of the war. [Applause.] Every Republican, as well as every Democrat, knew that when the war was brought to an end the citizens returned quietly to the pursuit of peace, and with such success that there was a year of great prosperity.

It was then that Gen. Grant was sent by the President through the Southern States to ascertain their condition, and he reported that all they required to enable them to repair the damage of the four years' conflict was that their people should not be disturbed by the army of the United States. [Laughter and applause.]

How, continued the orator, had Grant behaved with regard to the advice he then gave? After eleven years of maladministration the Republic had been taught the country and the whole world to face the future in circumstances which were more disastrous than any that had preceded the war.

The profits of every kind of industry were greater now, after all these years of Republican Administration. In 1867, the country was in a state of ruin, and it took years to get it back to the normal state.

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

Mr. McLane spoke of the Civil officer who had been sent to the South to restore order, and he called upon his life as a scholar and a man of letters. [Applause.]

A RIPARIAN LAND SUIT

SCHOOL TRUSTEES AT LAW WITH A RAILROAD MOBILIZER.

Some Property that is Claimed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey—An Application to the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

The case of John Taylor Johnston against the Trustees of the Support of the Public Schools et al. was taken up yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in Trenton.

The attorneys in the case are the Hon. F. T. Frelinghuysen and the Hon. Benjamin Williamson for the complainant, Attorney-General Cass for the Trustees of Public Schools, and the Hon. T. N. McCarter for the Hon. Asa Packer.

This is an application for an injunction to prevent the sale by foreclosure under a mortgage held by the State Board of School Trustees, of certain lands formerly claimed by the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey and the West Line Railroad Company, now claimed by John Taylor Johnston, situated in Communipaw Cove in Jersey City.

In 1872 the State granted certain land under water in Communipaw Cove to the New Jersey West Line Railroad Company, and directed the Riparian Commissioners to execute the necessary deeds and name a price. They did so, and the price was fixed at $125,000, and the grant was made according to law by the Governor and Riparian Commissioners to the West Line Railroad Company upon the payment of $45,000 in cash.

A grant of Custom House wharves was made there, but they were kept quiet by the police. The meeting was the largest gathering of colored people in the city in years.

Col. John Taylor, who served in a colored regiment in the war, and was especially commended for his gallantry, was present.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

A RIPARIAN LAND SUIT

SCHOOL TRUSTEES AT LAW WITH A RAILROAD MOBILIZER.

Some Property that is Claimed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey—An Application to the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

The case of John Taylor Johnston against the Trustees of the Support of the Public Schools et al. was taken up yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in Trenton.

The attorneys in the case are the Hon. F. T. Frelinghuysen and the Hon. Benjamin Williamson for the complainant, Attorney-General Cass for the Trustees of Public Schools, and the Hon. T. N. McCarter for the Hon. Asa Packer.

This is an application for an injunction to prevent the sale by foreclosure under a mortgage held by the State Board of School Trustees, of certain lands formerly claimed by the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey and the West Line Railroad Company, now claimed by John Taylor Johnston, situated in Communipaw Cove in Jersey City.

In 1872 the State granted certain land under water in Communipaw Cove to the New Jersey West Line Railroad Company, and directed the Riparian Commissioners to execute the necessary deeds and name a price. They did so, and the price was fixed at $125,000, and the grant was made according to law by the Governor and Riparian Commissioners to the West Line Railroad Company upon the payment of $45,000 in cash.

A grant of Custom House wharves was made there, but they were kept quiet by the police. The meeting was the largest gathering of colored people in the city in years.

Col. John Taylor, who served in a colored regiment in the war, and was especially commended for his gallantry, was present.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man. He was not only a brave soldier, but a brave man.

REFORM OVER THE RIVER.

Brooklyn Democrats who are Fighting Against the Peace Propositions.

The Kings county Republicans and the Slocum Democrats have harmoniously agreed on a coalition on local matters in the present canvass, and the committees of the two organizations are to settle on the apportionment of the offices. The vote for a combination was unanimous.

The Slocum General Committee and almost unanimously rejected the Peace Propositions, those opposing it being the known adherents and beneficiaries of what is called the Double Headed Republican Ring, which is made up of the old corrupt Democratic Ring and a co-opting circle of Republicans.

We mean by this coalition one of the leading members of the Slocum organization to a reporter, "to leave all partisan questions out of the local canvass, and go into the field with men of such high character as our candidates, that there will be no need to utter the word reform in this canvass."

As Democrats we will give a hearty support to the national Democratic ticket. It has been charged that we will weaken Gov. Tilden's chances here by our refusal to unite with the old McLaughlin element of the committee. The contrary is the case, because we hold ratification meetings in every ward, and we are doing so with great effect.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

The only definite arrangement thus far agreed upon is that the first named party will have one-half of the offices. The Republicans will retain the lucrative offices of County Clerk, Sheriff, and Comptroller. The Democrats will retain the offices of Surrogate and Comptroller. The Hon. Jacob Worth is said by his friends to be out of the race for either of the first named offices, but he is not yet decided.

THE CRISIS IN THE EAST.

PROBABLE FAILURE OF THE EFFORTS TO END THE WAR.

Turkey Refusing the Peace Propositions and Serbia Rejecting the Six Months Armistice—The Latest Fighting in Montenegro.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—A despatch from Constantinople says: "It is stated that in addition to the Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed by the powers."

The Porte has also handed to the Ambassadors of the powers a communication containing a scheme of reforms similar to that detailed in a Constantinople despatch of the 14th inst., which provides that a legislative body composed of 150 elected deputies, with a Senate of fifty government nominees, should be created and control the provincial administration, except in cases of emergency, the Porte has published this morning the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador a note justifying the refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The communication is regarded as an indirect refusal of the peace conditions proposed